

Detroit JCC Maccabi Scholarships

The JCC Maccabi Games® is the largest Jewish youth event in the world. Our community will welcome 1,200 Jewish teens from across the globe and involve thousands of members from our own community, including 400 host families, 1,000 volunteers and 200 local athletes.

Teen athletes can apply for the following scholarships. All recipients will be chosen based on financial need.

Stephen H. Schulman Millennium Youth Scholarship

The Stephen H. Schulman Millennium Fund was created in 2001 with the mission to engage Jewish youth, help them connect with each other and the Jewish community, and cultivate within them a Jewish identity and sense of communal responsibility. The Schulman fund generously provides scholarship dollars to help more Jewish tweens and teens participate in Jewish experiences by aiding in the financial cost that can deter families.

Richard Cohen z"l JCC Maccabi Memorial Scholarship

The JCC Maccabi Memorial Scholarship was established in 2020 to provide Jewish youth the opportunity to experience the JCC Maccabi Games®. Rich was a player and a coach with the Westchester delegation at the JCC Maccabi Games®. The games allowed him to do what he loved while creating lifelong bonds and memories. Rich lost his battle to colon cancer in 2020, but wanted to ensure that passionate teenagers were provided the necessary means to play in the JCC Maccabi Games®.
